SACRAMENTO.

Bretz Will Get His Deserts Tomorrow.

Bill That Unlocated School Land Warrants Be Cancelled.

The State Board of Forestry to Be Abolished.

Congressmen Requested to Get $500,000 for San Pedro Harbor—Whittier Reform School to Be Investigated—Nicaragua Canal.

By Telegram to the Times. SACRAMENTO, Jan. 25.—[Special.] The Bretz investigation committee's report will come before the House tomorrow for action.

The report as it stands will not be adopted, as both the Democratic and Republican leaders fear a second Deni Kearney result if Bretz is expelled.

They are averse to giving the member from Alameda any opportunity to pose as a martyr. No consideration is intended to be shown Bretz, and political expediency is the only reason for not immediately expelling him.

The Republicans intend to give the majority an unmerciful scoring for the ante-election policy of indulging and helping to send to the Legislature such a crank as Bretz.

Censure at the bar of the House and deprivation of the duties and privileges of membership will report favorably on the members of the Legislature.

THE LEGISLATURE. Proceedings in Senate and Assembly Yesterday.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] The Senate substitute for constitutional amendment No. 8, was tonight discussed at length in committee.

Senator Gesford explained the bill, which proposes to abolish the Railroad Commission and report favorably on the bill.

The Assembly committee on Constitutional amendments will report favorably on the bill.

THE PUBLIC PRINTING OFFICE. The Senate committee on the Assembly amendment to the Nicaragua Canal resolution, that the Government should have absolute control of the canal, if possible.

Among the bills passed were: To repeal the act creating a State board of forestry; providing for the cancellation of unlocated school land warrants; and requiring all railroads to allow mail carriers to ride free.

The Committee on Agriculture reported adversely on the act to create the office of commissioner of horticultural statistics. A bill was introduced making an appropriation for the erection of a building for the Southern California Insane Asylum; also one giving preference to ex-Union soldiers as employees in public service.

Among the bills finally passed was a deficiency appropriation bill for the Stockton Insane Asylum.

At a meeting of the Senate Committee on County Boundaries tonight the San Jacinto Bill was considered. A. T. Heron and Gill spoke in favor of the measure, using the same arguments as in the Riverside case.

Mr. Gregory spoke against it. Mr. Seymour brought up his bill taking up against the same San Jacinto and allowing the same to San Bernardino. There was no argument on it.

Ex-Senator McComas of Pomona spoke in favor of the San Jacinto proposition, which he proposes to take from Los Angeles county, with Pomona as the exception.

He said he had no complaint to make from treatment by Los Angeles, but they desire to govern themselves.

A joint resolution appointing a committee of three to join a like committee from the Assembly to investigate the Whittier Reform School, passed the Senate and now goes to the Assembly.

Adjourned. Assembly.—The Committee on Claims recommended that the State Board of Forestry be abolished.

Mr. Vann asked permission to withdraw his name from the committee report expelling Mr. Bretz, but was ruled out of order.

The Committee on Public Buildings favorably reported the bill for the erection in San Francisco of a building for the affiliated branches of the State University.

Mr. Fennell introduced a joint resolution requesting California Congressmen to endeavor to secure an appropriation of at least $500,000 for the construction of a deep-water harbor at San Pedro.

Among the bills introduced was one by Mr. Fennell creating the county of San Jacinto; one by Mr. Carson, creating a State Board of Irrigation; and one by Mr. Fennell for the appropriation for Donner Lake monument was favorably reported.

The Judiciary Committee reported favorably the measure for the appointment of five Supreme Court commissioners. A joint resolution asking Congress to make an appropriation for a public building at Eureka was adopted.

five members, be appointed by the Speaker, with power to send for persons and papers to investigate the charges made by the said railroad commissioner.

Mr. Matthews of Tehama voted that the resolution lay on the table until tomorrow, which was carried.

The Assembly joint resolution relative to the election of a United States Senator was adopted.

San Jacinto County Bill. SACRAMENTO, Jan. 25.—[Special.] Assemblyman Fennell introduced the San Jacinto County Bill in the House today at the request of Messrs. Gill and Anderson of San Diego county.

Assemblyman Casterline interposed objections to any member introducing bills by request.

Park Commissioners. SACRAMENTO, Jan. 25.—[Special.] The Committee on Municipal Corporations will tomorrow report favorably the bill allowing Los Angeles to appoint her own park commissioners.

A SERIOUS CHARGE. Commissioner Rea Says Johnson Offered to Sell His Vote.

Johnson Says It's a Lie, That He Never Had Anything to Do With Rea Nor Any of Rea's Friends.

By Telegram to the Times. SACRAMENTO, Jan. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] Railroad Commissioner Rea has written a letter to Speaker Gould, of the Assembly, charging that Assemblyman Johnson of Santa Clara county has offered to sell his vote in the Legislature on the question of abolishing the Railroad Commission, to him (Rea) for $100.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 25.—Assemblyman H. H. Johnson of Santa Clara stated this morning to the Associated Press representative, regarding the charge that he had offered to sell his vote to Railroad Commissioner Rea in a matter affecting the commission, that the charge was absolutely and unqualifiedly false.

"I never met Commissioner Rea but once in my life," said Mr. Johnson, "and with him on any matter or with any of his friends, as far as this charge is concerned. This charge may grow out of the defeat of certain parties by me at the late election. I have seen Speaker Gould, and he says he has received no letter from Commissioner Rea at all.

The Democrats Want the Pension Bill Amended—A Bill Introduced in the Senate to Admit Utah into the Union.

By Telegram to the Times. WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] Senate.—In the Senate the Committee on Naval Affairs reported an amendment to the naval appropriation bill authorizing a contract for the construction of one battleship of 9000 tons, two armed coast-defense vessels, ten gunboats of 800 to 1000 tons, and eight first-class torpedo boats. Referred to Committee on Appropriations. It fixes no limit of cost, but appropriates $3,000,000 toward the construction of the vessels, including $1,000,000 for armament and $200,000 for torpedo experimentation and trials.

Mr. Faulkner of West Virginia introduced a bill for the admission of Utah as a State. Referred to the Committee on Territories.

For the first time this session the Senate struggled in executive session over a Presidential nomination, that of Louis McComas to be Associate Justice of the District of Columbia Supreme Court. Today the Senate went into executive session, with the determination on the part of the Republican Senators to confirm the nomination before adjournment. The opposition, however, desired to be heard, and more than four hours was consumed in debate. The opposition to the nominee is based almost entirely on the ground that McComas is not a resident of the district. When it came to the vote, however, there was no attempt to filibuster, and the result was a decisive vote, standing 38 for confirmation to 18 for opposition.

Mr. Hambrong (Rep.) of North Dakota referred to the resolution which agreed to calling on the Interior Department for information as to lands excluded from the grant to the Northern Pacific Railroad Company as mineral lands.

At 1 p.m. the Senate proceeded to executive session. When the doors reopened the Senate adjourned.

House.—The Democratic members of the House sub-committee on appropriations adopted amendments changing the pension law of 1890. The following are the principal changes: That widows shall receive a pension on the act of 1890 unless she was married to the soldier prior to 1870; that no person shall receive a pension under the act of 1890 unless he was disabled in the service so as to prevent him doing manual labor, and in receipt of income of less than $600 per year.

They were also adopted away from the act of 1890 unless she was married to the soldier prior to 1870; that no person shall receive a pension under the act of 1890 unless he was disabled in the service so as to prevent him doing manual labor, and in receipt of income of less than $600 per year.

TODAY'S BULLETIN.

BY TELEGRAPH: Three million dollars wanted for more war vessels.—D-mocrats in Congress want the Pension Bill amended.—Senate confirmed Louis McComas as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court for the District of Columbia.—California Senate passed a concurrent resolution that the Nicaragua Canal be under United States control.—Unlocated school land warrants to be cancelled.—The Whittier Reform school to be investigated.—Bretz gets his deserts today.—The steamer Michigan wrecked on Vancouver Island.—Pacific Mail Steamship Company forces the Spanish-American Steamship line out of business.—San Bernardino supervisors voted against the division of the county.—The Algonquin Printing Company of New York has been attached.

IN AND ABOUT THE CITY. A couple of important Supreme Court opinions received for filing.—Sensational street affray in front of the postoffice.—Mass-meeting of the Populists to denounce Cannon and Kerns.—Unpleasant experience of a young man from Connecticut.—Meeting of the World's Fair Executive Committee.—News from neighboring counties.

WEATHER INDICATIONS. For Southern California: Fair weather; slight changes in temperature; variable winds.

AGENCY PHYSICIAN. The secretary's conclusion is that good service requires that Dr. Eastman shall be suspended from acting as physician at Pine Ridge agency, and unless Dr. Eastman can be assigned or appointed to another place he is willing to accept within the next fifteen days he must resign or he will be removed. The Secretary finds that there is no reason to suppose that Dr. Eastman is guilty of any fault with the conduct of Acting Agent Capt. Brown in this connection.

ARIZONA'S SLIGHT. Gov. Murphy Hopeful That Territory Will Be Admitted to the Union.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] Gov. Murphy of Arizona, in speaking of the action of the Republican Senatorial caucus yesterday, which was adverse to the admission of Arizona as a State, said: "The decision is by no means final. The Senators expressed their intention to investigate further. It is absolutely untrue that Arizona is afflicted with a burdensome debt, or that poverty exists everywhere within her borders. We propose to fight, respectfully, but earnestly, the country at large is with us. Further colonial bondage for any of the Territories is becoming distasteful to the American people."

Public Domain. WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Secretary Noble transacted today, in response to the resolution of the House, his report concerning the executive order of November 19, by which that part of Utah lying part west of the 110th meridian was restored to the public domain, together with all correspondence on the subject. The documents show that this land was thrown open to settlement for the purpose of allowing the people of the United States an opportunity of exploring the placer fields in search of gold and other valuable minerals. All the facts connected with the restoration were published generally throughout the country at the time the President's proclamation was issued.

Will Attend the Funeral. WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Chief Justice Fuller, of the Supreme Court of the United States, and Associate Justices Blatchford, Brewer, Brown and at-taches of the court left by special car tonight en route to Phoenix, Ariz., to attend the funeral of the late Justice Lamar, which will take place Friday.

What Was His Opinion? WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Referring to the published statement that Representative Cogswell has expressed an opinion on the much-mooted question of the opening of the World's Fair on Sunday, the gentleman said tonight there was no truth in the report.

Official Memoranda. WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The President and all the members of his Cabinet had a group photograph taken preparatory to their official separation.

The Navajo Reservation. WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—A telegram as received today from Col. Hunt, of the army, reporting that no prospectors had or were intruding on the Navajo Reservation.

Knocked Out. Pacific Mail Drives the Spanish-American Steamship Out of Business.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] Owing to a heavy cut in freight rates by the Pacific Mail the new Spanish-American steamship line has announced that it will discontinue its steamers between San Francisco and Central American ports. The agents of the company state that the suspension is not permanent and that as soon as rates warrant it their steamers will be put back. The Spanish-American company ran a steamer once a month to Central American ports, and for a time did a paying business.

Vagrants Freed. SAN BERNARDINO (Cal.), Jan. 25.—The Board of Supervisors today passed an order directing the Sheriff of the county to issue a certificate of discharge to vagrants confined in the County Jail upon the expiration of their sentence, and forbidding constables from arresting them within ten days thereafter upon similar charges.

Opposed to Division. SAN BERNARDINO (Cal.), Jan. 25.—The Board of Supervisors passed a resolution against county division by a vote of 4 to 1; White of Riverside dissenting.

Entombed Bohemian Miners—France Wants England to Explain—The Famous Concepcion Silver Mine in Mexico on Fire.

By Telegram to the Times.

BERLIN, Jan. 25.—Four new cases of cholera and two deaths are reported at the Nieleben Insane Asylum. At Trotha, where the disease appeared yesterday, eight new cases occurred today, and three of the persons who had been previously attacked died.

IMPERIAL NUPITALS.

The German Emperor's Sister Married to a Russian Prince.

BERLIN, Jan. 25.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The whole city was decorated with flags last evening and this morning in celebration of the wedding of Princess Margaret, youngest sister of the Emperor, and Prince Frederick Charles of Hesse. It rained most of the morning, but before 4 o'clock the hour for the civil marriage, the streets were dry and crowded with sight-seers. The civil ceremony was performed by Count von Wedel in the hall of the Empress Frederick's palace. All the royal personages gathered in the Chinese cabinet to see the Empress Augusta Victoria place the bridal crown upon Princess Margaret's head. Prince Frederick Charles and bride then led the procession to the chapel, where the religious ceremony was to be performed. As the couple exchanged rings the artillery fired thirty-six salutes. The ceremony was followed by a wedding banquet, after which came a torch dance.

PANAMA RAILWAY.

Proposed Investigation of the Affairs of the Road.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—William Cromwell, counsel for the Panama Railway Company; E. L. Oppenheimer, secretary; Rives, superintendent, and Frank S. Johnson of San Francisco, representative of the North American Navigation Company, are here, urging that an investigation of Panama affairs be made, and that it be thorough and complete. Cromwell, in his argument before the committee, claims that the investigation should properly include the Pacific Mail.

England Explains.

PARIS, Jan. 25.—The Marquis of Dufferin, British Ambassador, delivered to the French government a note as to the increase of the British garrison in Egypt. He assures the government that the increase does not imply any modification of previous assurances in regard to the condition of British occupation or any change in the policy heretofore pursued by Great Britain.

Everything Lovely.

New York, Jan. 25.—In answer to inquiry by cable about the present political troubles in Egypt, E. Raladine & Co. received this morning the following cable answer from their correspondent in Alexandria: "No serious apprehensions felt here: unified Egyptian bonds over 98 and cotton market unchanged."

Panama Scandal.

PARIS, Jan. 25.—The Parliamentary Commission inquiry into the Panama scandal suspended its sittings today. Further prosecution in the Panama investigation now depends entirely upon M. Franqueville, the investigation magistrate. The Commission will be presented probably tomorrow, by Chairman Brissons.

Hope Abandoned.

VIENNA, Jan. 25.—All hope of rescuing alive the men entombed in Fort Schmitt mine at Dus, Bohemia, is abandoned. Every effort is being made to recover the bodies of the dead. It is known that 130 men are in the mine, and it is generally conceded that those not killed by the explosion were suffocated by after-damp.

French Press Indignant.

PARIS, Jan. 25.—The French press continues to display deep indignation regarding the attitude assumed by England in Egypt. The Figaro says that France ought to retaliate by occupying Tangiers. La Republique Francaise declares that Europe will not allow the Khedive to become a blind vessel of England.

How Cholera Was Spread.

BERLIN, Jan. 25.—It has been definitely determined that cholera infection comes from the River Saale. Five workmen who persisted in drinking the water were taken down by the genuine Asiatic scourge. The authorities have made it a penal offense to drink Saale water without first boiling.

Asked to Explain.

PARIS, Jan. 25.—M. Waddington, French Ambassador in London, has been instructed to ask Earl Rosebery, British Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to explain the incidents in Egypt which caused Great Britain to take the recent extraordinary steps.

A Railroad Smash.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 25.—A passenger train on the railway from Wilna to Minsk today ran into a freight train, which was stopped by a heavy snow bank. Fifteen persons were killed and thirty seriously injured.

Desires an Explanation.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—Despatches to the Exchange Telegraph Company say that France has asked the British government for an explanation as to the increase of the British army of occupation in Egypt.

Yellow Jack.

PANAMA VIA GALVESTON, Jan. 25.—Yellow fever has broken out in Guayaquil, Ecuador.

Knocked Out.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 25.—Soldier Walker of San Francisco and Charles Turner, a local colored heavyweight, met in the Stockton Turner, fought at Army Hall tonight before some five hundred persons. It was a very even fight up to the twenty-third round, though Walker seemed to be the weaker of the two. At that round Turner rushed the fight, and Walker met him, and by rapid blows knocked him out.

KANSAS UNITED STATES SENATOR.

Martin Declared Elected—The Republicans Refuse to Acknowledge Him.

TOPEKA (Kan.), Jan. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] The Legislature met in joint session today. The Republican members of both houses declined to answer the roll-call. Ninety-one responded to their names, being eight more than a quorum. Eleven of these members are Populists, the House having given them seats through contests. Without these there would have been no quorum. When the Senate roll-call was called the entire Populist strength went to John Martin. O'Brien (Dem.) also voted for him. The result on joint ballot as finally announced was: Martin, 86; Coburn, 4; Hanna, 1; Sydney, 1; Close, 1. The president then announced Martin elected as United States Senator. Before he had done this, however, Senator Baker (Rep.) demanded that the Republicans be given the right to vote. The President ruled that the vote having been announced no further votes would be received. The Populist joint session then dissolved. Senator Baker (Rep.) mounting a chair in the midst of the Populist demonstration, offered a resolution declaring that the men who voted in joint session have no legal right to their seats; that there has been no election, and calling on the members to meet and elect a Senator. Speaker Douglas was elected chairman of the joint session. After resolutions had been adopted an ineffectual ballot was taken, showing 77 votes for Ady. There being no quorum, they adjourned till tomorrow.

Mrs. Lease and Mrs. Diggs, who have been prominent in the councils of the People's party, are furious over the election of Judge Martin as Senator. "You can say for me," said Mrs. Lease, "the election of Judge Martin is the death blow to the Populist party in Kansas. I renounce my allegiance to it." Mrs. Diggs said: "When the Populist party elected Judge Martin Senator, it committed suicide. From its ashes, however, will arise a party not to be dominated by political tricksters, and which will carry out the will of the people."

Benton in the Lead.

BISMARCK (N. D.), Jan. 25.—A ballot for United States Senator today gave Ascy 15; Kingman, 15; Benton, 44; others scattering. Five Cass county Republicans voted for Benton. The twenty-fourth ballot gave Benton 48. A joint session is now under call of the House. It requires forty-eight votes to elect.

Later the next ballot gave Worst 20; Casey, 15; Benton, 43; others scattering. The joint session then dissolved.

Still Balloting.

LINCOLN (Nebr.), Jan. 25.—In joint session of the Legislature today, Powers received 54 votes; Paddock, 30; Majors, 12; the rest scattering. The ballot would indicate that the situation is unchanged. An open breach was made last night between Paddock and Thurston, and it is now believed that Paddock's reelection is impossible. The indications are that Paddock will make his fight, and uncover all the strength he has tomorrow. The Independents still stick to Powers.

Without Result.

MADISON (Wis.), Jan. 25.—Only two votes were cast today in the Democratic Senatorial caucus this evening, and then an adjournment was taken. The final vote resulted as follows: Mitchell, 28; Bragg, 29; Knight, 20. There were two absentees, both Mitchell men.

No Choice.

MADISON (Wis.), Jan. 25.—The Legislature met in joint session today and voted for a United States Senator. There was no choice.

Still No Change.

OLYMPIA (Wash.), Jan. 25.—Two ballots were taken today for Senator. There was no change from yesterday.

Vote Unchanged.

HELENA (Mont.), Jan. 25.—A ballot today for United States Senator showed no change.

A PUGILIST SERMON.

Fat Shedy Reads Corbett a Lesson on Ethics of the Ring.

New York, Jan. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] Corbett, when shown Pugilism in Corbett's reply to his recent pronouncements upon the methods of modern fighters and fakirs, told the issue with the California pugilist: "My letter had one good effect at least. It stung Corbett into manly action. He now descends from his high pedestal and says he will fight Mitchell or Jackson, or any man, or any combination, agreeable, any man in the world next fall." Shedy thereon combatted Corbett's statement as to the earnings of clubs giving fights by an array of what he asserted to be authentic figures. One word," he added, by way of conclusion, "is that I think it is no more a painful surprise to Corbett. That gentleman assailed my infallibility as an oracle and says I predicted 'his defeat by Sullivan in three rounds. I did not say Sullivan would whip him in three rounds. Corbett, however, must have become impressed with the fact, for he is reliably informed, forwarded $5000 to San Francisco to defeat him. He apparently did not have that supreme confidence in himself that he now possesses, and he cast anchor to such a preceding. That thrifty gentleman, I obtained this knowledge of Corbett's distrust of his own capabilities from a gentleman who accompanied him to the battle-ground. He saw him dispatch money to his brother, a bookmaker in San Francisco, in response to the latter's demand for coin to put up. So trustworthy do I regard my informant that I am willing to bet Corbett $10,000 he speaks the truth. Whoever heard of a champion betting against himself before? No body but 'Jim the Clinch' would dream of such a proceeding. That thrifty gentleman is a 'sure thing gambler,' and win or lose, wishes to cage coin a hundred to one shot. When the time comes for fighting does come around Corbett will be looking for 'an angel' or 'backer,' as he calls him, to put up the money. It's a thousand to a nickel he won't risk his own."

Corbett denounces Shedy's statement that he had forwarded $5000 to San Francisco to bet on Sullivan as a malicious and unwarranted falsehood. He also says: "I am at a loss to understand why Shedy should attack me unless he wishes to gain notoriety for himself. The idea of Shedy posing as a reformer of pugilism or reformer of anything is ridiculous. He is a 'short-card gambler,' a man who has all his life made his living off credulous knucklers. He is a moral wrecker, and the spectacle of Shedy on a high moral platform is absurd. I want no more truck with the fellow, and will have none."

Fourth Annual State Citrus Fair,

THE NEW PAVILION AT COLTON, COMMENCING MARCH 15, 1893.

The new pavilion, now nearly completed at Colton, is 186x192 feet in size, covering nearly an acre of ground. It is claimed to be the largest pavilion south of San Francisco, and is the best arranged pavilion in the State for fair purposes.

It contains over twenty thousand square feet of exhibition floor, with a gallery on all sides of this space for spectators only.

There is also a music hall in the rear center of the building, which is 84x96 feet in size, with gallery on three sides, the entire hall having a seating capacity of nearly fifteen hundred. This hall is supplied with a large stage, with dressing-rooms, etc.

In one of the front corners of the pavilion is a fine art gallery, 48x48 feet, and in the other front corner is a dining-room of the same size.

The entrance is in the center of the west front of the building, and to the right of this entrance are two committee-rooms for the use of the awarding judges during the holding of fairs, and on the left hand side of the main entrance is a ticket office, secretary's office and a room for the board of directors. These rooms are large and commodious, being 16 feet square.

The accompanying cut shows the ground floor plan.

This State Citrus Fair is being held under the management of the Twenty-Eighth District Agricultural Association.

The Southern California World's Fair Association has appointed a committee of one from each of the southern counties, who will appoint the awarding judges.

The premium list is a liberal one, amounting to about the same as last year—a little less than $3000.

Arrangements are being perfected for a dress parade of the Southern California World's Fair exhibit at the Citrus Fair prior to being taken to Chicago.

Hon. Stephen M. White has been invited to deliver the opening address, and Governor Markham has also been invited to be present at the opening and speak, if his duties in connection with the Legislature will permit.

Ex-United States Senator George F. Edmunds of Vermont, who is now stopping at the Terracina Hotel, Redlands, has also been invited to speak on one evening during the fair.

The railroads are arranging for liberal excursion rates, and with the double attraction of the Citrus Fair and the World's Fair exhibit in the same hall, the gathering in March promises to be both large and notable.

There was a veritable circus at Panoramia Hall last night, the occasion being a "mass-meeting" of sixty or seventy-five Populists, among whom were a number of women, called to listen to the report of B. W. Batchelor, chairman of the People's Party Central Committee of Los Angeles county, who was sent to Sacramento to keep Kern and other Populists in the middle of the road, and to investigate the shortcomings of members remiss in their fealty to the Populist party.

Organization was effected by electing John Robson, a baker, chairman and A. J. Batchelor, secretary, and as rank "reformers," as the party called themselves, and possessing about as much knowledge of parliamentary law and usage as they do of grammar, the ignorance of which is equalled only by the rabidity of their socialistic views.

Mr. Batchelor was very bitter in his denunciation of Marion Cannon, whom he likened unto Judas of the Testament, and Benedict Arnold of our own country, which received vociferous applause, as did every expression, and they were plentiful, wherein the red flag was forswornly flaunted.

In regard to his belief in the charges made against Mr. Cannon as to his defection and influencing others to follow, Mr. Batchelor left no doubt in his auditors' minds, and by copious readings from the report of the investigating committee, which he distorted to suit his own fancy, settled a conviction of guilt in the minds of his listeners.

After an hour's argument, and when he thought the time ripe to spring the proposition to indorse the resolutions passed by the Sacramento Populists, which he read, he was so severely denounced, he indicated the fact to one of his followers, who made a motion to so indorse; but there was a "thick headed" German there, whom they later forced to leave the house because of his opposition to their scheme, who thereby brought to his feet a wild-eyed Russian, and "ready to read Cannon, Kerns and all the rest of the traitors out of the party." This was received by the loudest cheers and cries of "That's right, read them out!"

Chief Moore reported the following resolutions, which then introduced the following resolution, in substance: WHEREAS, Marion Cannon, late nominee of the People's party and Congressman-elect of this district, went to the State Capitol, and contrary to the demands of the National, State and County Committees of the People's party and of the various Farmers' Alliances, lobbied in favor of a Democratic Senator, and thereby betrayed the trust of his constituents, and attempting to paralyze our efforts for reform.

Resolved, be it known to the people of the United States, that Marion Cannon, farmer of Ventura, California, is a traitor to the principles and to the party who made possible for him to sit in the halls of Congress, that he deserves the scorn of every earnest reformer, and we demand that the National Committee of the People's party and the various Farmers' Alliances, lobbied in favor of a Democratic Senator, and thereby betrayed the trust of his constituents, and attempting to paralyze our efforts for reform.

SENATOR WHITE certainly has no "kick coming" on the reception that was tendered him yesterday.

VICE-PRESIDENT-ELECT STEVENSON has expressed his entire approval of Senator Carlisle as a possible Secretary of the Treasury. This may be regarded as settling it absolutely.

The earth, modeled in miniature, is to be one of the attractions at the World's Fair. It has been suspected, all along, that Chicago was pining for the earth, and she is going to have it.

The hardships of the oyster dredgers make them flock to the jail at Easton, Md., for refuge. This fact is not exactly in harmony with the popular idea concerning jails, but when the horrors of existence on the oyster boats are considered it is easy to perceive how jail life might seem like palatial luxury.

While Senator-elect White is still new to the dignities and responsibilities of his position there is a practical suggestion that we feel impelled to offer him. Without delay he should have the buttonholes on his coat and "vest" worked in with wire and fastened with rivets.

The New York Commercial Advertiser thinks that one of the interesting questions of the hour is whether in the future labor difficulties are to involve wholesale murders by poisoning, the introduction of cholera and typhoid fever among the non-union men and the blowing up of buildings in which they are housed. The Homestead revelations are preparing the public mind for an entirely new view of the relations between capital and labor. The latter, through its organizations, cannot too soon disavow the Homestead atrocities and express its abhorrence of them and the men who were guilty of them.

AFTER a struggle, or rather a series of struggles, extending over a period of nearly twenty-six years, the National Capital now has undisputed possession of a large tract of pleasure ground located in a most delightful region, and known as Rock Creek Park. The earlier efforts to secure Congressional action failed, and it was not until December, 1888, that the campaign which has just been brought to a conclusion, was opened. It commenced with an editorial in the Star, and grew in importance as the plans were more definitely advanced in subsequent arguments. A public meeting and thorough committee organization followed, and then came the strike. Another movement to journalistic enterprise, well conceived and persistently maintained.

WE were shown, the other day, a curiosity which ought to be turned over to the Science Association for investigation and elucidation. It is what was originally a solid rubber ball, but which is now petrified and has every appearance of being an iron stone. Years ago a gentleman, who now resides in Los Angeles, was a merchant in one of the Eastern cities, and this was one of a stock of rubber balls which happened to be put away and became a "hold-over." Time has worked the strange transmutation. It is well known that the manufacturers mix sand and other materials with rubber in manufacturing such balls, and probably there was so large a proportion of silica, sulphur or some other mineral put into the ball in question that it took hold upon the whole mass and actually converted it into stone. If the combination could be ascertained it might lead to the discovery of a valuable process.

ONE of the most recent of ologies added to the long list that science possesses, is zoopraxography—the science of animal locomotion. By invitation of the Fine Arts Commission of the World's Columbian Exposition, Edward Muybridge will give, at intervals, from May to October, 1893, in the Zoopraxographical Hall of the exposition, a series of lectures on the "Science of Animal Locomotion," especially in its relation to "Design in Art." These lectures will be given under the auspices of the United States Government Bureau of Education, and will be based on the elaborate work—"Animal Locomotion"—containing the results of the electro-photographic investigation of the movements of animals made by Mr. Muybridge for the University of Pennsylvania. Lectures and demonstrations on this subject have been given by the author as nearly all the principal institutions of science, art and education in the United States and Europe. We are inclined to look askance at a man who speaks his front name "Edward," yet it may be his mother, in passing, to note that three large portfolios of Muybridge's plates, illustrating the locomotion of horses, cows, dogs, cats, elephants, camels, monkeys and other animals, as well as of birds and men, have recently been secured by the Los Angeles Public Library. It is a scientific as well as a scientific work, well worthy of careful examination.

A New Road Law Proposed.

A bill to amend the existing road laws of the State and introduce several practical improvements in the system has been prepared, and will shortly be submitted to the Legislature with the approval of the Los Angeles Board of Supervisors, and probably the approval of similar bodies in other counties. It provides that any owner or occupant of land adjoining a highway not less than three rods wide may plant shade trees along the road, specifying minimum distances between trees and from the line of the road, and making anybody who wilfully injures such trees liable for damages to the owner or occupant. It provides for dividing counties into road districts, as at present, and each Supervisor is to be Road Commissioner of the district in which he resides. He is to draw no compensation for this service aside from his regular salary and mileage as Supervisor.

The Supervisors are also to appoint a road overseer for each district, to hold office for two years, subject to removal by the board. The general powers of the Supervisors over the roads of the county, to open, widen, abandon, etc., are re-enacted about as they stand at present, and to collect taxes for road improvements and apportion money to the several districts. They are also given authority to erect mile-stones and guide-posts, place gates across highways where desirable, have public roads sprinkled, etc. They may let out contracts for the improvement of roads, if deemed expedient.

The road overseers are to be paid $3 a day for time actually employed, and they have the direct supervision of all work not let out by contract. They are to report quarterly, under oath, as to time employed, expenses incurred and work performed.

Provision is made for levying and collecting a road poll tax of $3 on every male citizen between the ages of 21 and 55 years, excepting only those who have been honorably discharged from the army or navy of the United States. Citizens may work out their poll tax under the direction of the road overseer, if they prefer.

A sum not to exceed 35 per cent. of all road poll taxes collected may be apportioned to the general road fund.

This law has some common-sense features about it, notably the provision for planting and protecting shade trees, the sprinkling of roads and the better arrangement for supervision of work. In this country, no matter how nicely highways may be graded, they cannot be maintained in good order through the long summer without watering. The proposed law would be an improvement over the system now in vogue, and is especially applicable to the needs of Los Angeles county.

To Change the Mode of Election.

A new plan of electing a President and Vice-President of the United States is taking shape in Congress, though the project is likely to be relegated to the next Congress for determination and submission to the several States. The propositions submitted by Mr. Springer and others have been under consideration by the sub-committee of the Select Committee on Election of President and Vice-President, and a substitute plan has been prepared embodying what are considered the best features of all.

It provides more fully for the representation of minorities. By Mr. Springer's plan, the electoral vote of Illinois at the last election would have been twelve for Cleveland, eleven for Harrison and one for Bidwell. By the plan of the sub-committee, which goes into fractions, it would have been Cleveland 11.65 votes, Harrison 10.95 votes, Bidwell 0.71 vote and Weaver 0.61 vote. By the last mentioned plan, if the two leading candidates are tied, the one having the larger popular vote is declared elected. Mr. Springer does not say specifically what shall be done in case of a tie, but impliedly leaves the question to be settled by the vote of the Senators and Representatives in joint convention.

The sub-committee plan provides that if more than one certificate is received from any State the two houses shall determine in joint assembly which is the rightful one. If the two houses cannot determine the result of the election according to the certificates before them then the House is to choose the President and the Senate the Vice-President. If either House votes that the result of an election depends on the vote of a State or States and that it ought to be judicially determined for whom these votes should be cast, then a court must be convened, made up of the Chief Justice of the United States and the Chief Justice of the highest court in each State. This court is given power to go behind the returns, and its decision is declared to be final. Mr. Springer makes no such elaborate provisions. His amendment makes it the duty of the Governor, Secretary of State and Chief Justice of each State to canvass the votes and send the result to Washington. All disputes over the validity of returns are to be settled by the joint convention of the two houses.

Whether the system formulated by the sub-committee will meet the favor of the entire committee and be brought before Congress in time to elicit general discussion this winter is somewhat problematic. But it is manifest that some change in the present cumbersome, inequitable and undemocratic plan of electing the two highest officers in the Government is likely to be brought about before a great while. There is a general demand for some better system.

AMUSEMENTS.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

COMING ATTRACTION.—The next attraction at the Grand Opera-house is, New Edgewood Folks, which is described as being a bright and wholesome comedy. We were also told that aside from the absorbing interest in the character acts of Alva Heywood, who leads the company to appear here on the 20th and 31st, there is a well-considered plot in the comedy, unfolded by a number of amusing and interesting people, a fact of importance to auditors who do not like to see the entire burden of a play carried by the star.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

EUROPEAN QUARTETTE CONCERT.—The Los Angeles public again showed their interest in local musical talent by the crowded house which greeted the European Quartette last evening at the Los Angeles Theater.

This quartette has sung so often and so well at the various concerts here that it has come to be a favorite, and never appears anywhere without receiving ample testimony of the fact. This, however, was the first attempt of the members to give a concert of their own, and the large attendance and marked appreciation was most flattering. The quartette, which consists of Messrs. J. P. Dupuy, F. E. Nay, H. S. Williams and E. F. Wallis, was assisted by Miss Katherine Kimball, soprano; J. Bond Francisco, violinist; Miss Mary O'Donoghue, pianist, and Miss Beatrice Francisco, accompanist. The stage was now more prettily and effectively arranged. There was not a superabundance of flowers, and those used were placed most artistically. As the concert progressed the flowers increased, the elegant set pieces sent up to the singers from time to time being left on the stage.

The European never sang better—and that is saying a great deal—than the perfect harmony of voices, the accurate measure of time and the happy selection of songs rendered each number so delightful that encores were repeatedly demanded, and sometimes granted.

Miss Kimball's appearance was greeted with applause by her hosts of friends, who were eager to hear her sweet, powerful voice which is winning such laurels in San Francisco, not only in the church where she regularly sings, but on the concert stage. She sang with the same ease and grace as she always does, and won flowers and applause galore. In Abt's "Evening Prayer" she sang the beautiful "Ave Maria" with delicate and exquisite when, in the midst of a delicate passage, a string snapped. Long and loud applause at the conclusion of the selection recalled him.

Miss Francisco, as accompanist, did well her part.

J. Bond Francisco played with his usual skill, and showed his mastery of the bow by retaining his seat with the same grace in the midst of a delicate passage, a string snapped. Long and loud applause at the conclusion of the selection recalled him.

IN SOCIAL SPHERES.

The reception given by Mr. and Mrs. William Niles yesterday afternoon, was one of the largest and most elaborate of the season. A long line of equipages was waiting constantly during the hours of receiving, most of the three hundred or more invited guests responding personally.

The porches were canvassed in and great spike palms arched the entrance. The parlors were elaborately decorated with flowers and greens, the predominating tint being pink. The lovely bells of the flowering maple drooping from masses of smilax artistically arranged. Mr. and Mrs. Niles, assisted by a few lady friends, cordially received the guests.

Refreshments were served in a room on the second floor, which was gorgeously decked in scarlet flowers. A frieze of pepper boughs extended around the moulding and garlands of smilax fell from a crimson-shaded chandelier to the four corners of the table. Mrs. Stowell and Mrs. Parsons sat at either end and pointed the tea, coffee and sandwiches, cake, ices and sugared nuts were handed about.

The enclosed porch, with rugs strewn over the floor, made a cosy nook, where Roman punch was served. The reception lasted from 2 to 4 in the evening. A large company of young people enjoyed a merry dance.

PERSONAL NOTES.

The annual reception of the Ladies' Benevolent Society will occur this afternoon and evening at the residence of the president, Mrs. C. Ducommun, on Grand avenue.

Arthur Young of Toledo, O., is spending several weeks in Southern California, and has been the guest of his old friend, F. E. Olds, on West Twenty-fourth street.

Mrs. J. E. Coffin of Whittier is spending a few days in the city.

COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE.

Its Management Highly Commended by the Grand Jury.

In the report of the grand jury the following clause in reference to the County Clerk's office was inadvertently omitted:

"The examination of the books of the County Clerk was made by the grand jury, from November, 1891, to September, 1892, inclusive. All moneys received were properly accounted for, clerical errors amounting to $3 only being uncovered, which, on attention, being called to, were immediately rectified."

A summary of the total receipts and disbursements is as follows:

Receipts from all sources	$28,227 26
Paid to treasurer	1,966 00
Paid to receiver	26,261 26
	$28,227 26 $28,227 26

The work of this office is well systematized and the records are kept in a manner in which it is conducted is generally satisfactory to the public.

WELCOMED HOME.

Enthusiastic Reception of Hon. Stephen M. White.

A Cordial Greeting Extended to the Senator-elect.

Met at Saugus by the Committee and Escorted to the City.

Procession from the Depot to the City Hall—Speeches by Ex-Mayor Hazard, Mayor Rowan, Mr. White and Hon. R. F. Bell.

"Hail to the chief! Steve, we welcome you! May you, with your bear, climb the ladder of fame and aid in guiding the ship of state as gloriously as the people of California greet you!"

Such were the expressions that spontaneously burst from the enthusiastic friends who greeted Hon. Stephen M. White, United States Senator-elect from California, yesterday.

Yesterday was truly a gala day in Los Angeles, not only with a class or party, but with the whole people of Southern California. The event was the return of the honored son of the Golden West, the pride of Southern California, who left his home where he had lived so long, but a few days ago, plain Steve White, to return an United States Senator. But to his friends and to the whole people, he was not "Our Steve," but "the Senator-elect," and "the chief," and "the bear," and "the tiger," that rent the air and was echoed from the hills.

Such handshaking and generous words of greeting as took place, and from every hand, can only be appreciated by the witnesses. Republican and Democrat in heartiness, and Senator and Mrs. White were besieged from every hand.

A little hand in the air above the uncovered heads of the concourse of people and a happy, childish voice calling "Hello, papa; why, how do you do, papa?" caused the statesman to leave all others to claim his boy, Master Willie, in his arms; but the act was of short duration, for another claimed his attention, little Miss Hortense, who was beside herself with joy at being clasped again in her father's strong arms. The scene was a beautiful one, and happy smiles played over the features of all at the picture.

THE TRIP HOMEWARD.

Hurriedly the train was boarded, and then began a continuous levee. It was "Steve" once more, and as Steve of old went through the cars from one end of the train to the other, shaking the hands of every one, right and left, and giving to each a few words of salutation or banter as they would pull him toward them with "Hello, Steve, old man!" "How are you, Steve?" "Well, Steve, old boy, you're back again, eh? and got there, too!" some one remarked that they were glad he was elected Senator.

"Yes, Mr. White," added Mr. White. "And thus the homecoming of the Senator-elect, a perfect love-feast, and as informal as Steve White, in his bigness of heart, could have wished it to be."

THE COMMITTEE OF WELCOME.

The following comprised the Committee of Welcome on the special train: H. P. Anderson, D. F. Donegan, J. W. Cook, J. Shlack, H. L. Montgomery, J. F. Humphreys, C. F. Munson, H. W. Latham, C. M. Marshall, H. Sienkiewicz, L. Leeb, Judge McKinley, E. F. C. Klokke, Horace Bell, C. C. Desmond, R. Dillon, A. Vignolo, F. L. Grosvenor, J. E. Younk, B. Lee, J. Brink, Judge Van Dyke, J. Bryson, Sr.; M. Plaisant, A. D. Childress, J. Frankenthal, H. G. Otis, W. C. Patton and wife, E. J. Moon, H. J. Prince, J. W. Hendricks and wife, Mrs. Sabich, Ex-Mayor and Mrs. H. T. Hazard, Mrs. Hill, Hortense and William White, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Koepfl, Max Meyberg, Mr. and Mrs. E. Germain, C. D. Willard and wife, T. D. Stimson, George Bonebrake, J. A. Ayers, Mrs. J. S. Chapman, Miss Kennedy, Miss A. Sabich, Mr. J. Mesmer and wife, Mrs. Sacrist, Mr. and Mrs. F. Eaton, Miss Dillon, Brig.-Gen. Johnson, H. Z. Osborne, F. W. Braun and wife, Gen. McCook, L. Mesmer, J. B. Lankershim, H. Howell, W. W. Howard, W. F. P. Cress, J. F. Corran, T. L. Gooch, S. Prager, C. Perkins, J. E. Newcomb, M. C. Holman, L. Herzog, S. Hutten, H. Newmark, W. H. Workman, J. P. McPherson, J. Kealey, J. Moriarty.

At 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning the Arcade Depot of the Southern Pacific Railroad was swarming with men and women, who, as invited guests, boarded the special train of five coaches and the drawing-room car. A few minutes later, to be whisked northward at exactly 9 o'clock to meet the honored guest.

The train rolled out amid cheers and strains of music rendered by the Douglas Military Band, and with streamers the full length and on each side of the drawing-room car, bearing the words: "We welcome you, Steve."

The personnel of the party, was of the highest character. There were Mayor Rowan and the City Council, Ex-Mayor H. T. Hazard, the Board of Supervisors, Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade, Republican and Democratic County Central Committees, Ramona and Los Angeles Parlor of the Native Sons and Daughters, official heads of the press, of the banks and of the wholesale houses. The bench and bar were represented by Judge E. M. Ross, of the United States District Court, all the Superior Judges, and nearly all the prominent lawyers of Los Angeles. Gen. H. McCook and staff and Brig.-Gen. E. P. Johnson and staff lent additional dignity to the party. The foreign powers were represented by C. White Mortimer, British Consul; L. Leeb, French Consul; J. F. Corran, Mexican Consul; V. Ponce, Belgian Consul; and C. Trucco, delegate of the Italian consulate. The ladies graced the occasion with their presence, and there were quite a number of the fair sex, enough to nearly fill the drawing-room car, with their escorts. Among the ladies were Mrs. J. S. Chapman, the Senator-elect's wife, who had charge of her grandchildren, Master Willie and little Miss Hortense, who, of course, were enthusiastic over their trip. "For aren't we going to see papa soon?" exclaimed Miss Hortense, when asked if she was enjoying her trip.

At 10:14 o'clock the train arrived at Saugus, the junction where a branch line trends westward through the valley to Santa Barbara. Here all left the cars to enjoy the last glimpse of the city, while they awaited the train to the overland bearing Mr. and Mrs. White.

While the guests were thus engaged, the train crew ran down the "Y" and turned the cars, which gave an opportunity to the bohemians to meet and become acquainted with the men who had the party in charge. In the absence of Chief Train Dispatcher W. J. Hamilton, who joined the party on the return trip, Train Dispatcher Thomas McCaffrey had charge of the excursionists, while Conductor Cameron received the train orders, and Dave Thomas handled the freight cars. In the train, one of the fastest and finest engines on the road, Cameron and Thomas, as conductor and engineer, have often been commissioned to handle distinguished parties, and that they not only thoroughly understand their business, but enjoy these opportunities, was shown by their plan to aid in the reception, which was carried out on their return, by throwing the throttle open for a distance after leaving San Fernando, thus giving the excursionists "a touch of high life," and working the steam whistle, which extended Los Angeles, in a manner calculated to drown the noises of the hundreds of other greetings of welcome that were sounded from the steam whistles of mills and factories upon entering the city's gates.

The overland being some minutes late a light luncheon was indulged in, while those who had not secured one of the handsome white satin badges which designated the wearer as a member of the Reception Committee to receive the Senator-elect, whose portrait adorned its center, were supplied.

The pent-up enthusiasm of the crowd broke out as the overland train pulled into the Saugus depot, and the strains from the band of "Hail to the Chief," and later "Hail Columbia" and "Yankee Doodle," which were each in turn greeted with applause. The transferring of the newly-made Senator and his wife to the special train was accomplished amid their mighty cheers and a "tiger" that rent the air and was echoed from the hills.

RAILROAD AFFAIRS.

How a Discrimination in Rates May Work.

General Baggage Agents Preparing for a Deluge of Trunks.

The Eastern Freight Pool That Did Not Materialize.

A Low Rate to San Francisco Today—Travel to the Inaugural—General and Local Railroad Notes—Scrap Heap.

Reference was made yesterday to a traveler who in shopping among the ticket offices looking for a cheap ticket to Indianapolis claimed he had been offered a rate of $41, which would amount to a cut of $13 from the tariff.

Later information is to the effect that he had bought at Indianapolis a ticket to Los Angeles for $41, and he wanted to go back again at the same price.

More than that, he declared he would not go back at all unless he could go for the same amount it cost him to come to California. It is stated that a broker here did offer to send him to Indianapolis for $45, but as that was $4 more than the west-bound rate he wouldn't trade.

The man is still looking for a ticket agent who will send him back home for $41. Numerous instances come to light to prove that in California business the Eastern ticket agents enjoy considerable leeway, and get business at a profit.

The commissions on west-bound business are many times larger than on east-bound, and this fact is responsible for much rate cutting. The railroads might go further in the work of populating the State by carrying people hither for say $5 a head and charging $100 to take them back again.

SCRAP HEAP.
No changes in freight rates were made public yesterday. The war is not very lively.

All reduced rates between the Atlantic seaboard and the Mississippi River will be advanced on February 1.

Today the Southern Pacific will sell round-trip tickets to San Francisco for $20. The rate is available going today only.

George W. Cable, a director of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Northern Railway, and H. B. Sudlow, general superintendent of the Rock Island and Peoria Railway, are visiting Southern California and stopping at the Westminster Hotel.

Prospective travelers to Chicago during the present year are anxious to know if the reduced rate tickets [which will be on sale "will permit any stop over at an intermediate point." The general impression among passenger agents is that no stop-overs will be allowed on the tickets sold at the lowest rate, but that the privilege can be had by paying a little extra.

At the meeting of general baggage agents in Chicago it was decided that the roads would have no difficulty in handling World's Fair baggage. The matter of rough usage of baggage was a topic that exhausted considerable time. Every effort is being made to lessen the destruction of baggage by railroad employees. Nearly all the roads are doubling their present number of baggage cars, and they expect the service to be adequate to the demands which will be made upon it.

Under the terms of the Eastern pool the Chicago and Grand Trunk has been ordered to divert traffic to the Chicago and Erie. The diversion of orders is being made by the Big Three just before adverse action on pooling by the Congressional committees on interstate commerce. It was doubtless made in anticipation of favorable action by the committees. In any event neither this order nor that on the Michigan Central has been obeyed, nor is there any prospect that either will be obeyed.

An exchange says it is generally believed by passenger agents that owing to the sweeping victory of the Democrats that the inauguration of Cleveland will rival in proportions the attendance of the G. A. R. encampment last fall, when Washington was crowded as it had never been before. At that time the Baltimore and Ohio and Pennsylvania roads suspended freight to the national capital and gave up the tracks to the movement of passenger trains. The excursion rates for the inauguration have not been fixed, and this is what the public and the passenger men are anxiously waiting for.

Battered the Chinaman.
John Edgar yesterday demanded a jury trial on the charge of battery preferred by Charlie Ong, a Chinese fellow-prisoner in the City Jail. Last Friday it was claimed that John got quarrelsome, and after making repeated disturbances, jumped on the Chinaman as the latter lay in his bunk, and kicked him, also knocking out one of his teeth. The tooth was offered in evidence and duly filed as an exhibit for the people. The defendant had no defense to offer, simply denying the charges, which were borne out by the testimony of Jailor

Hare and others who saw the act of battery committed. The jury quickly returned a verdict of guilty, and Edgar was remanded by Justice Austin, to appear for sentence this morning.

Made Off With the Cash Box.
Officer Whaling arrested a boy named Robert Burke yesterday afternoon on First street and took him to the Central Police Station, where a charge of larceny was entered against him.

Robert entered a bakery near Alameda street, and, taking advantage of the absence of the proprietor, who was in the back part of the shop, made off with the cash drawer, a small affair made from a cigar box, and its contents. He was discovered just as he was leaving the store, and after a short chase was captured by a citizen, who turned him over to the officer. The money, which amounted to $2.05, all in small change, was recovered. The boy will be tried in the Police Court today.

Made a Break for Liberty.
Frank Brown, alias George Hibbard, a prisoner now working in the chain gang, yesterday tried to take advantage of the momentary absence of the keeper from his immediate vicinity, and made a break for liberty. Special Officer Howard at once pursued the runaway, and captured him without difficulty. He will wear an extra ornament in the shape of a pendent ball and chain, hereafter.

Secured Another Continuance.
The notorious Powelson battery case is still hanging fire before Justice Seaman. A day or two ago Attorney Brooks, for the defense, overleaped all precedent and astonished the Police Court by demanding time to file a brief. Yesterday he secured another continuance, this time till next Monday, the 30th, when the case will be argued and submitted.

Petty Offenders.
The petty criminal business of the Police Court was rather light yesterday. Four vagrants received ten days each, two drunks got $2 and $5 fines, respectively, and John Brown was assessed $8 for carrying a concealed weapon.

OUR WORD IS OUR BOND.

Upon our advent here there was one available store to let. The owner stipulated the rent, which was satisfactory, but declined to give a lease, and said that his "WORD WAS HIS BOND," stating that as long as we occupied the store the rent should neither be raised nor lowered.

The boom came along and he was repeatedly offered twice the amount of rent we were paying, yet our rent remained the same until the demand for more store room necessitated our removal. Did we need a receipt at that time as to the policy we should pursue in our business as a lions with the public, there certainly could not have been any better example set than the one he has mentioned. Our every effort has been to impress as forcibly as language could utter that "OUR WORD IS OUR BOND." We have never permitted nor tolerated any misrepresentation in the character of our wares and have sold them for just what they are. We have told you through the press what you have realized in our stores. We have impressed forcibly upon our clerks on the entrance into our employ that in making a sale to invariably tell the truth.

Advertising is the only method that we have in holding converse with you. When we write, it is done in the same spirit as if we were addressing the acts therein contained to each individual person that comes in to our stores. It is upon this basis that we have obtained your patronage, and upon it that we shall hope for a continuance.

When we make a statement to the public we are committed enough to believe that it is accepted as truth, and verifying before a misstatement is folly. For the past four years or more we have had an exchange department where anything that is a satisfactory to the purchaser might be exchanged or the money refunded at will.

We make these preliminary remarks for the benefit of new comers who might possibly think our mode similar to those of unscrupulous merchants whose sole object is to sell their wares by any means that will justify the end. When you read our daily saying as in the future you can rely upon every word contained in it as being absolute facts.

DRESS GOODS
Dept.
$2.35
We have taken a line of striped storm serges, all wool and 40 inches wide, goods that cost us $2.97 a suit, and which we sold as a decided bargain at $3.50.

$2.35
A line of all-wool Camel's Hair stripes, suits of 7 yards goods that we sold a little earlier in the season at $4.20 a suit. They are 40 inches wide and one of the most exquisite lines of dress goods manufactured in this country.

75c
A line of printed India Silks, the designs and the quality are beautiful. They are an announcement by Cheney Bros., and their price per 100 pieces was 80c a yard before the rise in silk. We have silks in stock at $1 and $1.25 a yard that will not begin to compare with this value.

We are putting up dress goods trade as we never have done before, and we make it as an announcement for the spring trade that we will fairly paralyze the heretofore prices in fine dress goods.

10c
A choice line of new Outing Flannels, this season's goods, not 36 hours in the house. You will find them sold closest at 12 1/2c.

12 1/2c
Scotch Gingham. We do not mean the ordinary domestic gingham that is sold at 12 1/2c or 15c a yard. These goods cost 13 1/2c to take from the looms. If you can find this quality anywhere else under 20c a yard your money is at your disposal.

Choice designs in colorings in printed cotton goods. Sold all season at 15c. You will find this splendid value.

$1.50.
A bleached linen damask Napkin, 1/2 size. This is a special napkin and a special price, and if in any of the great linen departments you can buy this napkin for $1.75, we will yield the palm.

A 5-pound blanket; it is 64x78 in. long, guarantee the weight, and a blanket that we have sold as a bargain at $2.25.
